

Nicolleti and Turgeon will be your English teachers find their rooms and a poem that relates to high school - be prepared to read the poem and explain why it relates to you!

Math can be a challenge for some, but you are smart! Go to Ms. Rogers room and copy the equation, than solve it. (Be sure to erase the one you choose, no two teams can solve the same equation)

Math is more than equations - go to Kopyy's room and read the bottom of your bag for a clue about a geometric shape - find the shape described.

Mr. Brown teaches Biology he will tell you all about living things. Find a definition on his board and collect an item that describes the definition.

Head to the counseling office, on the way stop at security and get a question for the counselor - take your question to the counselor for a response.

A second language is part of your high school graduation requirement - go to Ms. Gottlieb's room and find a tasty snack.

Social Studies has many concepts - Mr. Zachary teaches economics so find some cash.

You are not seniors yet, but soon you will be, Mrs. Rose teaches personal finance (so important for life!) Find the key to your personal success in her room.

Mrs. Harrison teaches World History so you must fill your passport with 3 stickers from famous landmarks.

Ms. Moroz teaches Government so find the picture of the 16th president (honest abe)

