

your first mission is to find something that is will bring you luck for this hunt.

every one must tell papa a nursery rhyme or sing a little song look inside something that rolls for your next clue.

lets see if you find four red items and a three leafed clover.

now, everyone go to the first aid station, get a bandaide out of the kit and put it on the first person you see.

walk to the front of the house and sit on the porch until someone asks you what you are doin.

you will find your next clue in the pocket of who this party is for.

ok now youll need to find camera for a minute to do this. take a picture of two things youthink are funny about today try to get people to say the word bubble gum with no sound. You cant talk or write it down.

Last clue get a desert of somekind. you've got to talk someone into eating all of it without telling them why!!
