

GO to the place you spend most of your TIME. and search for a clue. HINT: It is brown, and closed today.

AHH! you are smart and remember the game. To find the next clue look behind a frame.

Now that you have found your first clue. Run back to the house and find something new. Inside you will find your next clue

You are almost there the end is in sight. Now go to the place you lay your head at night.

Now that you see what that clue contains go search in a space where you take out stains. There you will find the clue that remains.

The game is almost over, and that makes me sad. Find your next clue behind a picture of dad.

With that clue in hand you are one step closer now go to the place where we put the bags from the grocer.

There's one clue left until the very end. Go to a place where you might have to ascend.

That clue was easy this one is not the same. To find the next clue find my favorite childhood game.

Climb if you must to the very top you might smell like bate, but put the puzzle together to find out your fate

