

Find a picture of an aquatic plant called "Myriophyllum spicatum"

Find an object that can alter the path of water

Find a sample of Dihydrogen monoxide

Find an aquatic plant that looks like a raccoon's tail.

These organisms have an unique way of obtaining water through the ground. Find a sample of the object.

You need sun, water, nutrients and this other item for plants to grow. Find a sample of the object.

Find a picture of an aquatic invasive that is in Ike Walton Lake.

Find a picture of a unwanted plant that looks like pickerelweed and fireweed.

Find a card with an agency that helps protect nature.

Find a sign of an organism that drinks water.

