

I am the mother of Jesus. Come find me and say the Lords prayer to get your next clue. I am surrounded by beautiful flowers

I store all the tools to keep the grass looking good. You have to do 10 jumping jacks to get the next clue.

Find me where your clothes get clean, and keep me for the next clue.

I am made with stone, water and sand and I am a symbol of Ireland. Find me standing tall. When you do you have to do your Irish jig to get the next clue.

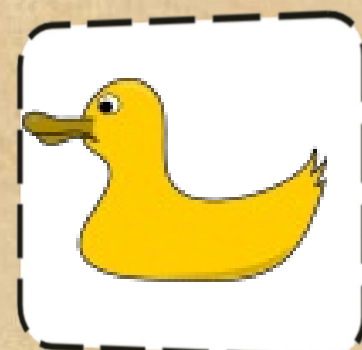

I originally come from trees and I am near a musical instrument. Use your marker on me to find the next clue.

This week we celebrate my birthday. Come and say the pledge of allegiance to get your next clue.

I keep a low shade mood when you eat your food. Tell us 5 of your favorite foods you love.

You like to visit and feed us when you can. Your favorite is the opposite of black. Watch us and find the next clue near.

In the winter I have red berries and I am a favorite at Christmas time. I rhyme with the word jolly. Tell us a favorite memory of Christmas.

I am fun when making smores, but be very careful with me I can give you dangerous burnt sores Yeah you found your reward!! Now give hugs and kisses to Deedad and Jenjen.

