

What vocabulary word implements background knowledge as an important connection for a student?

When we take in and build knowledge we do what?

The last word to be guessed for the creative interactive activity was what?

What are the two graduates first names who presented in class last Monday?

What city decide to go on strike and when was the last strike?

How many classes are listed in the syllabus?
How many points are the classes worth?

When we enjoy reading, Rosenblatt called this what terminology?

Who stated that reading and writing are key elements to learning?

This England born psychologist stated that learning is a process of inquiry and discovery.

What two scenerios did the class need to interpret using their own schema?

