

your scavenger hunt starts here use your clues to help u find the golden treause

The place you want to go is very kind of fishy you started you trip here now use your clues and go backwards where are YOu now you find your next clue head somewhere were you can laugh and play make sure you take a splash you need to grab your suvanear its something shiny and you will be sure to find it hear now hurry up and head back north make sure u grab a stub of leaf right below the door this place is where we like to chill look out the window and you will be sure to find a clue now head south and into the trees now u are getting closer make you grab the shovel head to the front and by the curb u will see something funny no should u start digging or no haray! haray! you found the tresure now open it up whats inside :)
