

I LOVE YOU MOM

Good morning. I hope you liked your breakfast. Today you will go on a journey through out the house trying to find your present. Here is your first clue. Do you remember the time at palm springs when we played football. I wish JR would have been happier.

My favorite picture is the one with a house in the corner that isn't suppose to be there.

What is your favorite comic? Mine is Nero. I miss him so much.

Go to Geoff's funniest collection. It has a great view.

I didn't know we had a book all about potatoes.

Come quick, there are frogs in the shower.

What is he looking at?

I didn't know we had a pet lizard.

That would be so cool if we went on the trip and saw penguins.

Your final clue is this. Look where your heart is, where you sleep and rest, where you take a deep breath to come down and deal with us. I can tell you that it's not in a black hole.
