

We use this system to help us organize our materials at each table? What color table are you?

R-E-S-P-E-C-T! Name 3 things that you should ALWAYS respect in the art room.

Before lining up to the door, how should you leave your chair?

Where does "wet" artwork go to dry?

Pencils and Paper are important items in the art room. What do you need to remember to write on your paper before turning it in?

When cleaning up after a good day of creating, where would you find the broom & dust pan?

These shelves are not part of the art room. Why do you think it is important NOT to play with these items during art class?

When you are done with any dry artwork, where do you place it?

There is a shelf that has 7 items that get used A LOT in the art room. Please list these items.

When you are done cleaning your paint materials, where should you put them to dry?

