

Ask three different people to describe the essence of the Mission neighborhood culture, as they see it. Make sure to record all three answers on your phone.

Interview and take a picture with a paletero. Ask them their name, where they're from, etc.

Foreign currency is all around in the Mission. See if you can get someone to give you any foreign money (coin or bill). Ask politely!

Interview and take a picture with any street stand merchant. Ask them their name, where they're from, etc.

Take a picture with and ask a long-term Mission resident what they've seen change in the neighborhood over the past ten years. Make sure to record the interview with your phone.

Take a picture with and ask someone who works in the Mission what it's like to work there. Make sure to record the interview with your phone.

Collect a clean joke from a local resident and take a picture with him/her. Make sure to record the joke with your phone or write it down.

Collect a flag (or an object with an image of a flag) from any Latin American country.

Take a picture with and ask a Mission resident what it's like to live there, what they do for fun, etc. Make sure to record the interview with your phone.

Take a picture of you and your team in front of the most interesting Spanish language sign you can find.
