

Santa's been a busy boy, left presents just for you! But they're not under the Christmas tree, you must follow clues! Look UP!

When you are feeling hungry but there's no time to make a meal, where would you look for delivery deals?

No matter how tall, no matter how strong, some things require you to stretch out EXTRA long.

It's Christmas time and all feels right. What in here creates some light?

Snow and ice make it chilly outside. Look in something that keeps me warm, but I take off inside.

Look out to the park, and what do you see? Something that belongs under a Christmas tree!

We don't have a fancy table where we sit down to eat, but meals take place here, and sometimes rest our feet.

I sure am thirsty, a drink would be nice! When I wet my whistle, I use this device.

All this going in circles will push your patience to the brink, so I will cut right to the chase - look underneath the sink.

I am a giant dork, that must be fairly clear. Dig into the Christmas tree - there's one more my dear!
