

Another birthday come, there have been many a fan, but only one, knows where it all began!

The only one to enter, the only one to see, let this person know, that my house is made for thee.

The couch bares many a squeak, despite our sealed clothes, let that not fool you, for above everything shows

From here the journey is almost to an end, the finish is near, but first you must lose, to the face of a cube!

Here he has brought you, his smile and his looks, but don't let that fool you, for a secret lies within those trousers!

Now the time has come, You've journeyed far and wide for this, let us go where it begun, where we first kissed!

So here we part, where it all began, the moment when, my heart fell through this very sand!
