

Around a tree you may find stones but can you find one of these funny looking cone's??

Birds eat it up, can you find, the seed that birds eat in your yard and mine?

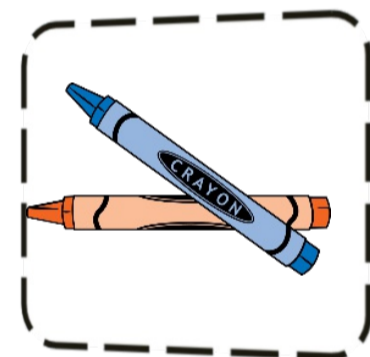

Some things just go together, can you find what goes with jelly most of the time?

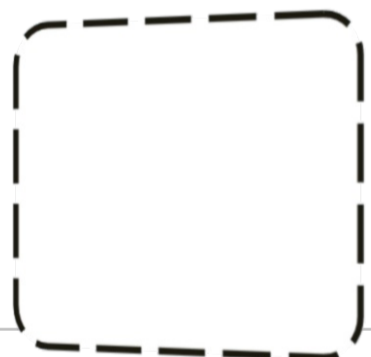

It comes in all colors, where could it be, it looks like a snake so find it please!

They flutter around all during the summer, where could they be? What could they be under?

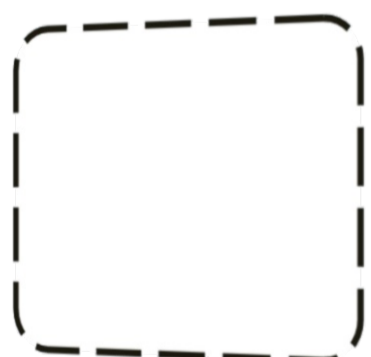

They fill things with color there is no doubt, Hurry and find them before time runs out!!
