

Come aboard my ship and you will wipe your dirty feet on one of these.

Now Pirates wouldn't lose so many teeth if we visited this place every 6 months!

Now where would we pirates be able to buy some SWEET booty?

We sleep in ships exploring the seas. Now find a moving home with wheels you landlubbers use.

Yo ho ho and a bottle of.... ?

We pirates rest our heads on these to get our beauty sleep

Us pirates do not use these, nor like these and that's why we smell!!

Now what would us pirates raid to get us a midnight snack?

You landlubbers spend so much time in front of these as we pirates do on the seas!

A chest is where the towels are kept, find the chest to find the treasure and end your quest!
