

Stiff is my spine and my body is pale, but I'm always ready to tell the story of Jesus.

I have long hair, but don't mistake me and my great looks as a girl. The secret to my great strength is my long hair.

I once was physician that wrote a detailed account of Christ's life.

I once was tempted like a girl with chocolate and ate of the forbidden fruit.

I never experienced death and was taken up in a whirl wind.

I lost hope of having my own children and laughed in my husband's face when he said the Lord would give me a son.

I once killed those who claimed to live, but after my encounter with God I was called an apostle.

I am quite the character. I became queen and saved my people.

I am a follower of Christ but denied him not twice, but three times.

I am a tiny man who conquered a giant. I went on to write many psalms.
