

Color is all around you in the fall gardens. Find a plant or flower with your favorite color.

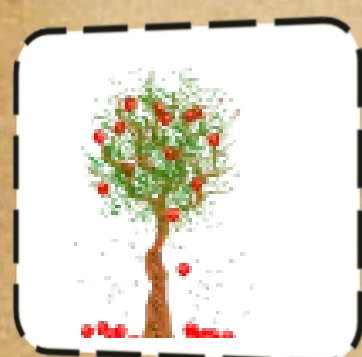

Evergreens can give off a scent that reminds you of the winter season. Find an evergreen plant.

Trees can look beautiful as their leaves change color and fall. Find one you see that interests you

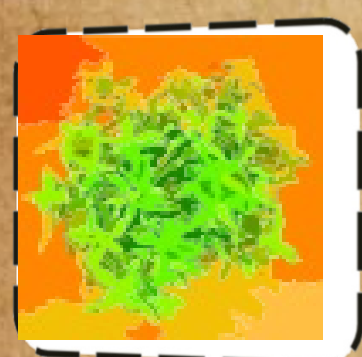

Pumpkins can be a symbol of autumn fun. Find a pumpkin that is beautiful to you.

The seasons of fall and winter can bring out special plants. Find a plant that is blooming right now.

Some plants eat more than water, air and sunlight. Find a carnivorous plant (woman's garden).

Plants are not only lovely to see here. There are many edible plants as well. Find one.

Plants can be made more beautiful with a lovely display or container. Find a beautiful pot or design.

There are many things to learn at the arboretum. Find a sign that teaches you something.

An arboretum is a wonderful setting for photos. Find a perfect scene for a picture.