

If you think a bit you will find me in a flash.
I'm full of old papers, chewed gum, and trash.

If you were soggy & wet like me you would
cry, so here's where i go to get nice & dry.

If you push my buttons and use me to call. I can reach really far but I'm not very tall

When you enter me you may smell, but after a little soap and shampoo, you are not able to tell.

In the garage I sleep. I'm blue and if I had a horn I could beep.

I am a metal box with numbers. It's usually the norm for me to help you get our food
warm.

You often use me to finish your chores. I suck up the dirt right off of the floors.

You put me on so you don't step on a rock,
but first you put on your socks

I am a skirt and I don't show a knee. I hold presents and needles do fall on me.

I can be a great crunchy snack. Eat me with dip or put me in your lunch sack.
