

On an unexpected adventure you must go Keep your eyes peeled look high and look low. You must dress wisely to begin, Find it in the bedroom hung up with a pin on a long journey you will go. Your treasures you will have to stow. Find this where coats and boots are kept. Make sure this thing you never forget.

Outside in the trees you'll find lots of these.
Don't be greedy, only take 1 or you'll be punished and have no fun lets all stick together and visit a friend who has not yet moved in. near the front door just look around everyone gets one and your luck will be found.

today you are a hobbit so one of these you must use find this at a well known shape and you will be amused during bilbo's trip he left this behind you need this if you cry and whine don't run but walk and use your feet go to the place where you cross the street from those among you one lives really close now go to his house and find what he plays with the most if you have found the weapon you shall not fail now look to the place were you post your mail

you must be hungry but do not drool go to the place where you leave the school the last item you may feel is out of reach but it can be found if you dig as if at the beach
