

The first item that you get to keep is under where your head rests to sleep you're doing really well at this you're giving it a good try, the next thing that you're looking for is where clothes get hung when dry.

if you want to be told where your next clue is, its where food is kept cold this is the eighth of your clues, so the end is in sight, now go look behind some things that help keep out the light.

the next hiding place you need to know is behind what plays your favorite show

Are you tired? do you need a seat? check the place where you sit and have something to eat.

if you can find your next clue you'll be in a good mood so go and take a look somewhere that you can cook food go outside and sing frosty the snowman song for your fifth of your Christmas clues and to make your gift pile grow this hunt's taking you where clothes are washed as white as snow

For your tenth and final Christmas clue, the place that you need to go is beneath something that has needle even though it doesn't sew.

