

Your mission starts here.. Your first clue can be found where Fort Whitney once stood.

Remember the items we purchased at WalMart in order to build this structure? Your next clue can be found behind one of these fabrics.

The next clue can be found outside the building where your dad I had our "talk".

This kind of food makes me sick... I once got food poisoning here, and will never go back.. hint is it's across the street from this place. Can be found around the entrance.

The next clue can be found outside of your place of employment.. A Clue is dollar bills :p

Your second clue can be found near the place I saw you at your finest moment... Don't be embarrassed.

The very first time that you kissed me. Time stood still like the moment was endless. A moment in history for only me. A kiss filled with pure tenderness. I felt like I must have been in heaven...very cheesy but your next clue is here

Get ready to be scared. This next clue can be found at the place where war of 1812 reenactments occur near one of the gravestones

To conclude your mission. This last clue can be found in the trunk of this car.
