

Follow these clues to find your gift. If you're clever you'll find them in a jiff.

Your next clue shall take you to a box that's buried with your stinky socks.

Here's your 1st clue, run, run. Go to where the laundry is done.

Now go to the place in the house that has something that won't squeak even though it's a mouse.

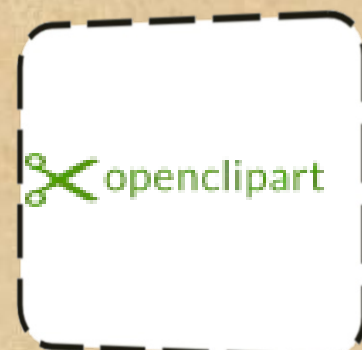

I know you're excited to see what's inside. Within a mailbox is where I hide.

For your next search, Oh what the heck, go out on the deck

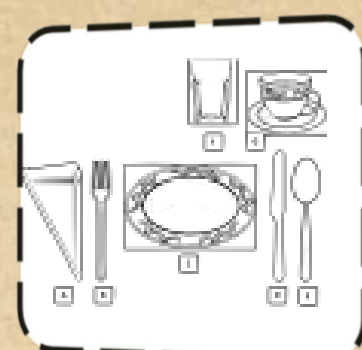

Now you need to look where you keep your favorite book.

Ready for another? You don't have to go far. Just to the place where we park the car.

Your next gift can be seen where you go to get clean.

For you last gifts, it was a perfect fit. For the space where you might go to sit.
