

The first clue can be found where someone can make copies.

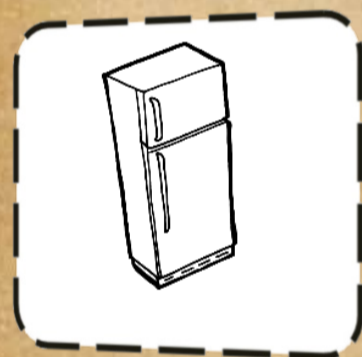

After you find that clue, your next clue can be found where letters are placed.

You will find your next clue where you heat your lunch up.

You will find your next clue where meetings are held.

And your last clue can be found somewhere cold.

