

There is a book in the play room that has a colors & a clue

Go out side the both of you. Maybe look under the B B Q

Check by the flowers blooming in the back yard. I think they are yellow & you will find a card.

There is a basket filled with treats to share. It is sitting under an outside chair.

For Jack you need to find the blue ball.

The prize is hiding in a stinky shoe by the back door.

For Esme the night stand by the bed you used you will find something you left and another clue.

One more hint to go. I spin really fast water goes in & water goes out I spin really fast. When it's done you open the door and look inside.

Now you need something to chew go look by the hula hoops.

Now that the laundry is done check out the card by the red wagon.
