

Find the stamp behind the bravest object in the yard. He is the one that would protect you during a fire.

Jump and jump and jump! To find this stamp, it's not what's on top to bounce... It's what's underneath that counts!

You will need to look inside what you would normally look through to see the stars to find this stamp.

This is where you score to win the game! Look through the net and on the side to find this stamp.

It's the best part of the Halloween season to carve these up into something scary.

There is no water flowing out of this rock today, but there may be a stamp somewhere inside.

You don't need to dribble and put the ball through the hoop to find this stamp, just look behind it.

To find this stamp, you don't need to ride a bucking bronco to get in the "swing" of the party.

You must be getting tired... Sit and swing to find this stamp.

If you were cold, this is where you would go to get get warmed up and find a stamp.

