

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

It is small carpet. It greets us when we come home. We clean our shoes with it

You can sign into me only with a password. If you guessed who am I, sign-in to me and get your next clue

It drinks but does not eat. It has four feet. It is very fast. It has belts in it.

Children love to sway 'to and fro' on me. You can see me from your bedroom window.

It is full of sand and water. It is the place where we went out on our first date. On reaching give the person you love the most a kiss for your next clue

What loses its head in the morning and gets it back at night??

Re-arrange the letters. When you get to know who am I, come to me for your next clue

You visit me for dinner. You like what I always 'barbaque'. I am waiting for you

You put your luggage in me when you go out on a holiday. I open from behind.

Wish you a very Happy Birthday Sweetheart!! Love You
