

To begin this hunt we start with the end. Go up the road way up yunder to a place where you end 6 feet under.

Now back you go and you are parched. Go where cowgirls can quench a big thirst.

The cackles are loud and feathers are flying but the place you gather these, they will be good for frying you drank to much and you have to go. Cowgirls did not have bathrooms. where will you go?

You found the prize now for a treat. The fire is warm and the coals are hot. come on up and get ready to eat?

This is the mission box for mission #10
Click here to enter your own text

