

Find a book with a "color" in its title.

Find a book you have not read by an author you really enjoy.

Find a book about an animal that can talk.

Find you a book you would like to read.

Find a funny joke to share. Write it down

Find a book that you have read with your teacher.

Find a board book written for babies.

Find a book about a television character you like to watch.

Find a book about a country you would like to visit.

Find a book written by an author with the same last name as a teacher at our school. Write down the title and author

