

Here we are on Christmas Day, let's get this clue on the way! You will find it where at night we lay.

Rudolph is Santa's #1 flyer, next clue is in the washer & dryer!

Merry Christmas young and old, go look where we keep the food cold!

Have you been bad or good? Santa says look under your hood..

Now that we are nice and cold, Go look where I constantly fold.

Now that you may start to perspire, go look where we might have a fire!

I know you might think I'm mean.. next is where you get squeaky clean!

I promise we are almost there, find it with your underwear!

almost the last rhyme, find the next one where I spend most of my time.

My private space... your present in is this place!
