

When Pharaoh laid down the decree to slay all first born Jewish children, a young Mother, Yocheved put her child into something like this and sent him down the river.

After many years, we made it to Israel! So exciting! Bring us something that reminds you of Israel

When G-d spoke to Moses for the first time, he did so by way of a Burning ----- Go get a small piece of one

We try to be inclusive at our Seder tables, inviting all of those who have no Seder of their own - and always leaving the door open for Eliyahu!

Find something that represents one of the plagues. Be prepared to explain why!

Your text goes here

AHH! The yeast didn't have time to rise, and we're left with Matzah! What can I eat it with?

Your text goes here

Our fearless leader Moses parted the Red Sea! Bring us something that reminds you of a time where you were a fearless leader!

Your text goes here