

Something that you have to do everyday that sounds like "Power"?

You are able to place things on me and I am in a lonely room.

I am flat and you need me to eat with I am a ?

I hold alot of things in me and you need me to make things stay fresh.

You can sit on me and sometimes sleep on me?

I am something you can talk on and can not move.

You can watch me and at times will not bore you?

You lay on me and put things under me.

You can turn me off and on?

You can put things in in me and on top of me and you can also hide me.
