

When you have to "catch" them all where would you go?

I'm not a library but I have a lot of books

Not your typical classroom but you can still come in and have a seat.

After you wash your hands and are set to leave, my room is the first you will see.

Most days you'll go here twice to get your belly full.

This is the first place you see when you walk through door 18.

Silence is golden, here it's the rule, stay to one side of the _____ like you're stuck to glue

Find the interesting fact about your teachers posted in each of their rooms. Write in on the back of this paper.

Find a friend that has your same eye color and write their name on the back

Find a friend has your same hair color, write their name on the back

