

Speak with a college about the major you are interested in. List 3 courses you would need to take in your first year of that major. College & Major: Courses:

Speak with 2 different colleges. What is their most important admission requirement?

Speak with a college about the major you are interested in. Ask them to list three careers that this degree will qualify you for.

Find a college of study representative and ask them what the starting salary vs. an average salary is for an entry level position for someone coming out of their school of study with a degree?

Speak with a college about the major you are interested in. Ask the representative what essential hard skills or technical knowledge is essential for their graduates to possess?

Find a college representative who approves of your professional greeting. (Make eye contact, smile and shake their hand and introduce yourself.)

Speak with a college about the major you are interested in. Ask him or her what is the number one mistake that students in this major make?

Speak with a college about the major you are interested in. Ask them if there was anything that they could go back in life and tell themselves about their college major decision, what that might be and why?

Speak with a college about the major you are interested in. Ask him or her what do most graduates go on to pursue after graduation (i.e., job, Graduate school?)

Ask a college representative, what percentage of their graduates find employment upon graduation or what the Occupational Outlook is for a given career?

