

If you need to move a Tyrannosaurus from one park to another, how would you carry him. (tow)

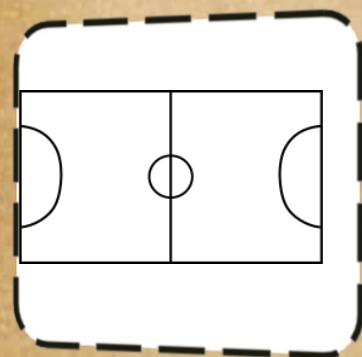

Some Triceratops like to drink grape juice. Where will you find grapes?

The Duck-billed dinosaur likes to swim. Where would you find him.

Pterodactyls have to learn to fly. They go for jumping lessons to launch them into the sky. Where would a Pterodactyl learn to jump?

The diplodocus likes big open fields and they love to play soccer. Where would you go to play soccer (clue, go into the veld)

Dinosaurs also need to save water especially the duck-billed dinosaur. Where would you go to check how much water is being used.

Which dinosaur likes to play volley ball. He has laid his egg in the sand. Go and find it.

The Microraptor is a climbing dinosaur. Who of you can also climb well. Where would you go to climb a wall?

The horses have come to rescue you from the Velocaraptors, go to them, grab the egg and head for home.

The final clue is where the nest lies. Return all the eggs to the thorn tree at the gate. Bash open the eggs to find the surprise inside.