

I'm an animal that you like at your side, I don't eat nor drink nor live outside.

If you pull my plug out, I will drain, but I don't run on electricity

I have a tongue and eyes and sole, together we run or kick a goal

I keep your bread fresh, I keep away flies. I am an informal measure of size

I have keys but no lock, I have a drive but am not a car clear cool bubbly water, pebbles and weeds, I've got all that a fish needs

I get rid of any dirt and stink, just separate whitest or they'll come out pink inside this place, if you work and sweat, you will see how fit you get

I help with somersaults and jumps, watch out kids just not to bump

I get a lot of bills and spam, unfortunately I can't filter them
