

Zebras are unique, they don't have the same stripes, it's like  Mikey Z that gets us all Hype!

Monkey's aren't great swimmers, so they may go see Sue to join the beginners!

Polly wants a cracker, or maybe a cinnamuffin, either way, your tummy will get some stuffin!

Tigers like to run for miles at a time. They mayrun in light or in thedark, but will run in  circles on the mark!

Like Katy Perry, hear themROAR, I bet they may bedancing with Etta on the floor.

Toucan Sam loves hightrees, especially in the cool breeze. When he wants to take a break from the hot sun, he may visit theclinic thinking it would  be fun!

Their favorite food is lettuce and it may just betheir feeding time, justmake sure and check to see if they are in the food line.

They love water, oh yes the do, you would usually see them playingwith each other near mud too!

Find Michelle and share the great news, so the animals can be helped bythe safari crew.
