

Name two Thinking Within the Text systems of strategic action.

Using the chart on page 400 of your Continuum, determine what instructional level is considered to meet expectations at the beginning of the year for the grade you teach. What does a red bullet point signify in the behaviors and understandings?

Name three characteristics for texts for guided reading that are considered when leveling a book.

Making Connections is a Thinking _____ the Text system of strategic action.

When looking at the behaviors and understandings listed in the Continuum, what does a square bullet indicate?

Name a genre of fiction that is introduced at Level L according to the Continuum.

According to the Fountas and Pinnell Text Level Gradient, what levels fall within the third grade level goals?

According to the Continuum, at what level are autobiographies introduced?

Share an appropriate word work after guided reading activity for students to complete if their instructional reading level is Q.

