

the Marriage of
His Royal Highness Prince William of Wales, K.G.
with Miss Catherine Middleton

The Beast has just fallen asleep. Where would you count your sheep?

A flower with a prick

A flavor of ice cream a flavor of gum we have this planted somewhere.

I have 88 keys but open no door I have three feet but can't walk anywhere

A place where someone turns into a zombie A place where mommy can sit for hours

A bedroom of sorts but people don't sleep
there. It has two doors that have a lot of windows.

A town inside of our house. A town
where there are more girls than boys.

A place where sam must clean A place where everyone goes daily.

I say tick all day but never have one on me I have two hands but cannot hold anything

The lair I guess you must want to find it is close to a room that you enter and exit, a place you suit up to face nature a place with a door that someone always wants closed.
